

South Point celebrates Saraswati Puja

Saraswati Puja, which coincides with Basanta Panchami or Sree Panchami, was celebrated this year too in South Point School on 28 January. The students of the junior section presented a variety of programmes consisting of dances, songs and plays. Students from the senior school presented a song and two dance compositions. The song Tomarei Koriachi Jibonero Dhrubotara, was dedicated to Swami Vivekananda on his sesquicentenary birth anniversary. This was followed by puja, arati, 'pushpanjali' and finally prasad distribution.

Wonderful programme

SOUTH Point School celebrated Saraswati Puja on 28 January in its premises. The students presented a wonderful programme on this day. Those of the junior school presented a dance performance followed by a short play. South Point High School added to the ambience by mesmerizing performances to Rabindrasangeet and dance. The Rabindrasangeet "Tomarei

Koriachi Jibonero Dhrubotara" was dedicated to Swami Vivekananda on his 150th birth anniversary. The was followed by the puja, arati, pushpanjali and prasad distribution.
