Class III (Morning)

Dear Parents/Guardian,

At the very beginning, we would like to thank you all for your continuous support to all our social service projects. It is your overwhelming response that continues to sustain many sections of society.

Daan Utsav is an annual festival of "giving" that is entirely volunteer driven. Since the movement began in 2009, over 40 lakh individuals from auto drivers to CEOs, school children to celebrities have participated in 100 cities across India, raising thousands in donation and millions of hours in volunteering.

This year as usual, we, at South Point are going to be a part of the Daan Utsav, a week long festival which begins on Gandhi Jayanti, October 2.

We would like the students of Class III (Morning) to come forward with stationery items as a gift for an underprivileged child to experience the "joy of giving". This entirely voluntary act will promote the values of empathy and compassion among our students. We hope you will join in helping make this festival of sharing and giving a success. The donated stationery items will go to the children in care of non-profit organizations.
