

Kathak exponent Malabika Mitra performed at the South Point High School auditorium as part of a SPIC MACAY initiative. The performance began with Ganga Stuti. Mitra spoke about how kathak was closely related to mathematics. She was accompanied on the tabla by Pandit Dinanath Mishra and Sandeep Neogi on sitar, with Pratip Banerjee on vocal support. The programme marked 14 years of the school's association with SPIC MACAY, a voluntary movement started in 1977 to enrich the quality of education by increasing awareness about Indian heritage.
