

PLUS POINTS

Encouraging students

Amish Tripathi, author and director of The Nehru Centre, London, joined the online annual prize distribution ceremony of South Point High School and South Point School. It was webcast live on the school's Facebook pages, where more than 10,000 present students, parents, alumni and other well-wishers witnessed it.

Tripathi advised Pointers to inculcate the qualities of toughness and resilience. H V Lodha, chairman, MP Birla Group, and President, South Point Education Society, addressed the ceremony. More than 150 prizes were announced, which included the Priyamvada Birla Bravehearts Award, the coveted Founder's Medal (Satikanta Guha Memorial Award), MP Birla Smarak Kosh (South Point) awards and MP Birla Puja Utkarsh Samman 2019. Students of both the schools presented a unique cultural production, "Memories and Discoveries - A Virtual Trip". The performances have been recorded by the students at their homes that have been digitally mixed and edited to present a complete group performance. About 44 students had participated in the presentation.

