

Friends occupy a special place in our heart. Nothing can be more rewarding than true friendship. Pupils of Classes VI to X of South Point High School through their paintings, wanted to pay tribute to the essence of friendship on this day and celebrate this special bond of togetherness.

