A Tale of Time

The city of Calcutta has not only changed its name to Kolkata; it has changed beyond recognition. So has South Point, which started its journey in this city seven decades ago. The School's been like a precious sapling that grew strong and deep roots over time and stands tall, recounting stories of experiments, excellence and experiences. Celebration time – bigger and brighter because the phantom of pandemic has been vanquished – is back again at South Point, in its Platinum Jubilee.

Here, the magic tree chooses to pick leaves from the past, present and future to embellish its repertoire of tales.

The quaint bungalow of Manservants Gardens, or the future-ready Pyramide Birla Campus at Mahalaxmi - together, the two delineate a treasured transition.
